POLK FAMILY AND KINSMEN

CHAPTER LXXV.

VISIT TO SCOTTISH ANCESTRAL HOME.

Col. Otis W. Pollock, U. S. A., retired, of San Francisco, has always manifested great interest in the genealogy of his family and the personal history of its members.

In a letter to the author, in Jan. 1911, Col. Pollock says: "I have the "Irish Pedigrees" by John O'Hart; David Scott's History of Scotland; George Crawford's History of Renfrewshire, and the Family of Stewart; and Burke's Peerage and Baronetage, from which I have worked out the pedigree back to Adam. O'Hart, in his work, has the pedigree of Queen Victoria traced to Adam the first man. I was able to trace mine until it became co-incident with hers. When we come to Robert Pollock of that ilk, the first Baronet, your genealogy and mine back to Adam are identical.

This geneology as said to have been prepared for Queen Victoria is use from Malcollm III King of Scotland back to adam
